

Pounds for Charity Donor Form

The Pounds for Charity competition was started as a friendly challenge between two guys in an effort to lose weight and grew into an opportunity to fundraise for local non-profits and promote healthy lifestyles. The competition has been modeled after the hit TV series, "The Biggest Loser," where individuals compete to lose the greatest percentage of weight.

Through The Chamber and the Zelienople-Harmony Chamber of Commerce the Pounds for Charity Competition began on May 1st, 2010 between General Rental's Mike Hall and Costco's Jason Madden. Dr. Gina Agostino of Complete Chiropractics and Dr. Amanda Jordan of Jordan Family Chiropractic are serving as Mike's and Jason's personal trainers respectively. Snap Fitness in Zelienople provided free memberships to the contestants.

The rules to the competition are simple. Each participant weighed in on May 1st at Cranberry Municipal Center. They have until August 1st to change their lifestyles and lose the most weight. The individual who has lost the biggest weight percentage during this time wins, and that person's charity will receive a bigger cut of the total funds raised. Mike is sweating out his workouts for Parents in Toto Autism Resource Center and The Miracle League while Madden is pressing ahead for The Children's Miracle Network. The winner will receive 60% of the total contributions. When Jason and Mike lose, these charities and our communities win by providing valuable services to thousands of families in our area.

In the coming months, Mike and Jason will be working with the three charities to develop and plan several events to involve the community and fundraise for their causes. Donations are being accepted through THE CHAMBER to encourage their life changing efforts and the charities they support. Corporate sponsorships are also welcome.

To donate, please mail the attached form and money payment to Parents in Toto (143 South Main Street, Zelienople, 16063). Checks should be made out to (The Chamber). If you choose to pledge based off the results of the competition, please submit enough information to reach you at the conclusion of the competition. We appreciate any help you can give us!

Please contact Matthew Kuzma (724-316-3811), if you have any questions.
