

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 27, 2022

MEDIA CONTACT:

Tina Fedko, Communications Director

J.W. Johnson, Communications Specialist

724-776-4806 ext. 1190 or 1181

Fire and Food Trucks to Heat Up the Summer

Food, fire, and fellowship are planned at Cranberry Township's fire stations throughout the summer.

Fire and Food Trucks will take place from May through August at the Cranberry Township Volunteer Fire Company's Park Station (20727 Route 19), Haine Station (1629 Haine School Road), and Public Safety Training Facility (1000 Maintenance Building Drive).

In addition to a variety of food trucks, the stations will be open for tours. Members of the department will meet with the community and offer fire safety education programs.

Events and food trucks include:

- 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, May 14th, Park Station on Route 19
PGH Crepes, Mobile Brunch Box, Le Petite Tour de France, B's Sips of Summer
- 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, June 15, Haine Station
Ash and Kris, Taquerio Acosta, Sweets for the Streets, Kona Ice
- 5-8 p.m. Monday July 11, Public Safety Training Facility
Mission Mahi, PGH EatZ, Sweets for the Streets, Nothing Bundt Cakes, Kona Ice
- 5-8 p.m. Wednesday, August 17, Haine Station
Yovi's Chicago Style Hot Dog, Pittsburgh Smokehouse, Pappy Kettle Korn, Sweets for the Streets, Kona Ice

For more information on Fire and Food Trucks, or information on the Fire Company, visit ctvfc21.org or facebook.com/ctvfc21.