CranFest Returns to Celebrate Diversity

For nearly a decade, CranFest has served as that celebration of the diverse and welcoming community the Township has become.

Those efforts are set to continue from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, May 6, at the Municipal Center, 2525 Rochester Road. Now in its 11th year, CranFest features live dance and musical performances, informational booths, and authentic cuisine from various cultures. More than 20 cultures will be represented during the event.

Groups scheduled to participate include Shareni Chorapi Bulgarian School@ BMNECC PGH, KIIN Thai Dance Group, Bell School of Irish Dance, NATYAKRIYA, Young Brothers Tae Kwon-Do, PGH Xiaobo Chinese Waist Drum Dance, Triumph Church, and PGH Samba Group.

The occasion also serves as Cranberry Township's Local Government Day, with members of the Township's staff and administration showcasing how they are at the service of the community.

The event is sponsored by All of Us Pennsylvania, Cranberry Advanced Dental Care, Mars Bank, FirstEnergy, Butler County Tourism & Convention Bureau, Family Vision Care, Seneca Valley School District, and UPMC Passavant.
