Memorial Day Ceremony Set May 28

Cranberry's annual Memorial Day remembrance ceremony will once again honor those who have paid the ultimate sacrifice.

Set for 1 p.m. Sunday, May 28, 2023, at the Veterans Memorial in North Boundary Park, the ceremony is presented by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 879.

The event's guest speaker is Dr. Alecia Hutsler, retired major from 171st Air Refueling Wing and current medical director at Cranberry Township VA Clinic.

Participating organizations include the Cranberry VFW Post 879 color guard and the Ohio Valley Marine Corps League Detachment color guard and rifle squad.

Students from Seneca Valley High School will sing the National Anthem and present a trumpet performance as veterans present six memorial wreaths. There will also be a remembrance of POW-MIAs with the release of white doves.

Refreshments will be served following the 45-minute ceremony.
