Community Days Promises Weekend of Fun

Community Days, Cranberry's premiere event returns this July, offering three days of fun.

Hosted by the Cranberry Township Community Chest, Community Days is set for July 11-13 in Community Park. Sponsored by UPMC Passavant, staples of the weekend will return, including:

- Martinis with Monet (7-9 p.m. July 10 at the Municipal Center)
- 15th annual Cruisin' Cranberry Car Show (4-9 p.m. July 11)
- Battle of the Badges (7 p.m. July 12)
- Lion's Pancake Breakfast (8-11 a.m. July 13)
- Roaming Mascots & Characters, Balloon Artists, and Magician (2-4 p.m. July 13)
- Community Chase 5K (8:30 a.m. July 13)
- Fireworks display by Zambelli (9:45 p.m. July 13)

Attendees can also listen to live music all weekend at the Rotary Amphitheater presented by Armstrong, browse hundreds of vendors, fuel up at a slew of food trucks, and enjoy carnival rides.

The event is free. CTCC will collect parking donations to support the Project of the Year.

No pets are allowed in Community Park during the event. However, trained service dogs are welcome.
