Board Seeks Applicants for Vacant Seat

With the retirement of Board of Supervisors Vice Chairman Mike Manipole, the Board seeks to fill that vacant seat for the remainder of Mr. Manipole's term.

At the November 6 Board meeting, Manipole announced his intention to retire effective December 10. His term expires December 31, 2027.

Township residents who have lived in the Township for more than one year and who are registered to vote in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are invited to submit a letter of interest to be considered for the Board vacancy. The letter should include reasons why the applicant wants to serve the residents of Cranberry Township, as well as any prior civic experience.

Letters should be submitted via email to Board@CranberryTownship.org and include the applicant's name, email address, home address, and phone number. Any attachments should be submitted in PDF form.

All letters must be received by 11:59 p.m. on Monday, November 24.
